Croatian Scholarship Fund

DEVELOPING LEADERS THROUGH EDUCATION

Dragica Krog Radoš Scholarship Fund

Mr. Damir Radoš established this endowment in memory of his mother Dragica Krog Radoš. Last year a first class of 4 students were selected into the program and CSF is in the process of selecting a new group of students for this year. The scholarships are offered to students majoring in Theatre Arts and Music Academy at the University of Zagreb.

CSF is also supporting a student, Ivan Galić, who is in a PhD program at the University of Sarajevo. This is an "Excellence Program" supporting individuals or students contributing greatly to the field of Music or Theatre Arts. A short profile on Ivan is included here.

Graduate student at University of Sarajevo Music Academy Ph.D. program

CSF is pleased to announce that it has honored Ivan Galić, an amazing Croatian pianist, with their Excellence Award to support his PhD program at the University of Sarajevo. Ivan will attend Music Academy of University of Sarajevo for the next three years to work on his doctorate degree in the class of distinguished professor Ruben Dalibaltayan.

Born in 1994 in Gorica, Ivan studied at the Academy of Music in Zagreb, and then at the Franz Liszt University in Weimar, his professors included Ljubomir Gašparović, Grigory Gruzman, Christian Wilm Müller, Balazs Szokolay, Imre Rohmann and Ruben Dalibaltayan. In 2009, he won the Chopin Golden Ring Competition in Ljubljana, followed by significant prizes and musical competitions in Zagreb, Berlin, San Dona di Piave, Hamburg and Tbilisi. He has performed as a soloist with Mostar Symphony Orchestra, Zagreb Philharmonic Orchestra and chamber orchestras of Zagreb Music Academy and Franz Liszt University in Weimar, as well as performances throughout Croatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Germany, Italy, France and South Korea.

Ivan Galić, prominent musician in his own right, has paid homage in his work, to Franz Schubert, Johannes Brahms and the modern works composed by Ivo Maček, a prominent Croatian musician of the 20th century, of which Ivan Galić says:

"Ivo Maček's works, too little known but of remarkable quality, are worth listening to on my album. Artistically speaking, such works are deeply rooted in the music tradition of late Romanticism. They show a composer with great personality and extraordinary music qualities, completely devoted to his vocation. It is very important for me to pay homage to one of the best Croatian piano composers.

CSF Director Joe Cindrich Awarded by Indiana University and the National Federation of Croatian Americans Cultural Foundation

Joseph M. Cindrich, Ph.D., a distinguished and beloved CSF Officer, Director and Advisor for 30 years, received two prestigious awards recently, recognizing his personal and professional accomplishments and profound contributions on behalf of Croatia.

On November 5, 2023, The University of Indiana honored Joe, presenting him with the W.W. Patty Distinguished Alumni Award, the school's oldest honor. It is presented to alumni who have demonstrated outstanding personal and professional achievement in fostering public health. This award capped Joe's 50-year career serving our country in public health and safety.

Letter from the President

This year I was elected President of CSF after 15 years on the CSF Board of Directors, serving as secretary and later as treasurer. It is a great honor and a daunting challenge to be following Marijana Pavić as CSF's President.

Marijana Pavić leaves the role as President, where she served from 2010 to 2023, and now she is the Director in charge of student outreach. As president she oversaw and directed phenomenal growth and change within CSF. When she took over the helm in 2010, CSF was awarding scholarships of $1,500 per year for 4 years and in that year CSF had 45 students with total funds of $212,180.

Today, CSF's scholarships are $2,500 per year for 5 years with approximately 105 students in CSF's regular program, 5 students and 4-5 interns in the Grgich program, and 4 students and growing in the Radoš endowment. CSF's 120 students represent a 200% increase in students. This was all accomplished through Marijana's dedication, tenacity, strong personality and incredible organizational skills along with the support of people like you. Likewise, donors and fund raising increased including CSF's two Endowments: the Mike Grgich endowment for viticulture and the Damir Radoš endowment in memory of his mother Dragica (1918-2015) for music, arts and theater students.

All this was accomplished with an all-volunteer board and a dedicated part-time administrative assistance.

I am personally delighted to have been selected president and excited about the future of CSF. Whenever any of our Board members become overwhelmed with the task at hand, we are cheered by thinking about our students. They are an amazing group of talented young Croatians.

To you and your family: A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!!

Thank you for supporting CSF. Because of you, all of CSF's current students are assigned a sponsor!

~ Barbara Jagiello,
CSF President

Joe accepting W.W. Patty Distinguished Alumni Award from University of Indiana

On June 3 2023, the National Federation of Croatian Americans Cultural Foundation (NFCACF) honored Joe at their national meeting in Washington D.C. and he received NFCACF'S first-ever Legacy Award as a Founder, President, and for his 30 years of service. NFCACF was formed in 1993 to fight for the independence of Croatia during its war of independence from the former Yugoslavia. Since then, NFCACF has been a strong advocate in Washington D.C. to form relationships throughout the government, to advance legislation to benefit Croatia and Croatian-Americans, and to build a strong and engaged American-Croatian community. An NFCACF spokesman said, "We believe that Dr. Cindrich's achievements and recognition deserve widespread attention, as they serve as an inspiration for future generations of Croatian Americans".

Born in Western Pennsylvania, "coal mining country" near Pittsburgh, Joe's mother Agnes and father Ante "Tony" were immigrants to the United States from Lika, Croatia. Tony was a life-long coal miner and Agnes was a homemaker and mother of seven children.

His parents instilled in him a deep love of Croatian heritage, culture and of course the music and food.

Joe was a football star earning High School All American and All-State honors as a Tackle in Pennsylvania and was awarded full-ride football scholarships to Notre Dame and many other colleges. Deciding to stay close to home, he accepted a full ride to the University of Pittsburgh. After the untimely death of his father, Joe returned home where he worked in the coal mines to support his family. After Joe's mother passed away, he raised his younger brother Paul throughout high school as he promised his mother.

He joined the US Marine Corps where he served in Japan and Okinawa, and played football for the Parris Island Marines. After the military, he enrolled at Indiana University on a football scholarship where he earned his Bachelors and Master degrees in Public Health. He earned his PhD from the University of Maryland in Public Health, Safety and Transportation.

Joe then began a 22 year career in the Federal Government with executive positions in the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Social Security Administration and finally as Regional Administrator for the US Department of Transportation for the Western states and the Pacific (Region 9) in San Francisco. He led many innovative projects, testified before Congress on many occasions and brought a high level of competence and integrity to his teams. In addition, Joe was a college professor and taught at Western Illinois University, University of Maryland and San Diego State University.

Joe has been a tremendous asset to CSF. He worked closely with the founders, Branko Barbir, Bob Bronzan and Tony Udjur, bringing a level of professionalism and accountability to the organization. He was frequently the Master of Ceremonies at the annual CSF Gala. As someone with a strong and personal understanding of the power of education, Joe foresaw the importance and impact of CSF on the lives of young people for Croatia. He always asks about results: "have they become leaders and given back to Croatia?" That is still his challenge to CSF, to make sure we are developing leaders through education.

We congratulate Joe on his recent achievements and look forward to many more years of collaboration and success. ■

Expressions of Gratitude from Current Students in the Program

I want to extend my sincere gratitude for your support. Your generosity has made a profound impact on my educational journey, and I am truly grateful for your belief in my potential. Receiving the CSF scholarship has been a tremendous help in easing the financial burden of pursuing higher education. It has allowed me to concentrate on my studies and work towards my academic and career goals without worrying about finances. I am deeply passionate about Croatian and English language and literature, and your sponsorship has given me the opportunity to pursue my dreams. Your support has inspired me to strive for excellence and to one day give back to others, just as you have done for me. I am committed to maintaining a strong academic record and actively participating in my community as a way to show my appreciation for your generosity. Your investment in my education is a gift that I will carry with me throughout my academic journey and into my future.... Your generosity has had a significant impact on my life, and I am determined to make the most of the opportunities you have provided. I look forward to the day when I can pay it forward and support others in the same way you have supported me. Thank you for making my educational dreams a reality.

Current Students in the Program

Sincerely, Korina Opančar ■

To begin with, 2023 was a very beautiful and successful year. I completed the first year of studies on time and passed all exams. I must admit that your financial support played a big role in my studies and discipline. Whenever I remember this scholarship (your award for me) I am even more motivated to work better and more successfully. Once again, I must emphasize that my academic year goes much easier with your financial help. I feel freer and more fulfilled when I know that my work is somehow rewarded.

Kind regards, Lucija Šarčević ■

I sincerely thank you for supporting me with your scholarship during my 1st academic year. I really appreciate your financial support, which allows me to worry less about my financial situation during my studies at the Academy of Music. My deep thanks once again and I hope that I will justify your trust in me with my work this year as well.

With respect, Luka Komljenović ■

Ivan reports that his work in Sarajevo is going well and he is greatly honored to receive CSF's award. CSF is equally pleased to have been introduced to Ivan Galić. We recommend that CSF's supporters go to YouTube and listen to his extraordinary music, particularly songs on the Scent of a Dream album which reflect both his fondness of Romantic music as well as his sensitivity. ■

New Student Report

We are pleased to announce that CSF was able to accept 25 new students into the program and currently there are a total of 104 students receiving scholarships through our regular program. A huge THANK YOU to our generous donors, sponsors and endowment donors. Without them CSF would not be able to support such a large number of academically gifted and financially deserving students.

Sharing a few excerpts taken from newly elected student applications:

My name is Ivana Babić, I was born in Nova Bila on April 23, 2004. I was born as only child. My father died tragically in 2008 accident, and my mother died of a brain tumor in 2017. Since then, I am supported by my uncle and grandmother with minimal monthly income and that is one of the reasons why am I applying for your scholarship, in the hope that I will be able to make my future schooling as easy as possible for myself and them. ■■

First of all, I want to express my deep gratitude and how honored I am to be a scholarship recipient of your foundation.

My name is Marko Bobaš and I come from Vitez, BiH. In high school I was a student of my generation and was involved in numerous extracurricular activities. The scholarship really means a lot to me because I come from BiH and life in Zagreb is expensive. The scholarship makes studying a lot easier. I also plan to use the money from the scholarship to enrich my knowledge, and contact with you is a great privilege. Lijep pozdrav. ■■

My name is Anamaria Vukasović. I come from a small village, Župa Dubrovačka, located about five minutes from the city of Dubrovnik. I grew up in a family house alongside my mom Violeta, older brother Nikola, and my grandparents. My father sadly passed away in 2010 in a motorcycle accident. I am incredibly grateful for this scholarship because it has allowed me to finance part of my living expenses in Zagreb and lessened the financial strain on my family. Once again, thank you, and I wish you a merry and blessed Christmas and a lot of happiness, success, and health in the New Year. Best regards. ■■

It is a great honor and pleasure to be chosen for a scholarship from the Croatian School Foundation. Thank you very much for recognizing my work and effort during my education. I will do my best to justify your decision and continue to be an active and successful student, for which you certainly gave me additional motivation with your decision. Greetings! Patricia Lončar ■■

This year Mike Grgich celebrated his 100th year. All of CSF wishes him a happy birthday. We are all so proud of Mike and thank him for his continuous support of CSF. Mike has made extraordinary use of his first 100 years. In 1976, Mike made his mark in viticulture when his wine achieved international recognition. His influence is immeasurable. His desire to pass on to young Croatians his knowledge and skill at wine making is laudable. Mike established through CSF a scholarship and internship program with the University of Zagreb School Of Viticulture which to date has provided over 40 scholarships and 33 internships and will continue to support students well into the future. There are numerous Croatians thankful to Mike Grgich for his knowledge, generosity, kindness and especially his world renown wines. A great Croatian icon!

Jackie Montgomery

After 32 years of service as CSF's bookkeeper, Jackie has turned in her balance sheets for gardening gloves. Jackie was hired by Bob Broznan in the very beginning days of CSF as CSF's bookkeeper. She was amazing and kept CSF's on track through its various administrations starting with a small bank account and a few students to having over a hundred students per year and two endowments to manage. She was great to work with and patient with us. We were so lucky to have her and wish her the best in her retirement.

Graduates express gratitude and appreciation to CSF and their Sponsors:

CSF helped me a lot financially in all 5 years of my studies. If it wasn't for this scholarship, I would never have been able to continue my studies and finish this undergraduate and graduate degree, where I gained a lot of knowledge and experience. I would like to thank the committee that accepted me 5 years ago, all the employees and my sponsor, because if it wasn't for you, I would never have been able to achieve a college education. ~ Matea Bajo

Honestly, if I hadn't received this scholarship, I don't know if I would have been able to study at all, so it enabled me to do a lot. Also, I was inspired to one day help someone in a similar way.

~ Marija Kasalo

CSF has been of exceptional financial benefit to me and is largely responsible for me reaching my fifth year of study on time as a full-time student. Without this scholarship, it would certainly be much more difficult, and it would require investing my time in additional work that will bring me more money, which in turn would mean much less time that I would devote to university duties. CSF is an organization that deserves all praise for its work, and many could learn from its example, for helping young, promising people to realize their full potential.

~Bepo Goić

Considering that only my father works, it is not easy to get an education, so in that aspect CSF meant a lot so that I could have a comfortable life without stress and so that I could always afford basic things. Of course, I always worked and found jobs, but without this kind of support, it would have been difficult. Keep it up and I'm truly grateful from the bottom of my heart!

~ Ivana Jagodić

CSF motivates me a lot to achieve better grades and pass exams on time, it means a lot to me to be your scholarship recipient and I try to justify your trust. It meant a lot to me financially. Above all, I am glad to have met my sponsors, the Bodor family, who are good and kind people.

~ Kristina Juričić

Upon learning that I had been awarded the CSF scholarship just before embarking on my college journey, I was so stunned that I woke my parents up in the middle of the night to give them the good news. I was overjoyed because I knew how much this scholarship would mean to me, and especially to them. Because of it, they had fewer worries about being able to finance my higher education, and I was given the opportunity to gain a great deal of independence. Additionally, being among the twenty students who were granted this scholarship served as a great confirmation that all the hard work during my high school years had paid off. This fuelled my determination to persist in my academic pursuits, motivating me to give my best in each subsequent chapter. From the very beginning of my higher education, I strived to live up to the expectations associated with being a scholarship recipient. This commitment significantly influenced my academic success, resulting in excellent grades and numerous awards from my faculty.

I extend my deepest gratitude to my sponsors, the Vidovich family, for being a constant source of support throughout these transformative years. Their financial assistance, which held immense value for me, was complemented by their heartfelt e-mails full with words of encouragement and support. They would often send me life updates and photographs from their family gatherings and holidays, which fostered a sense of familiarity and connection, and made me incredibly happy. Despite never meeting them in person, I often feel as though I have known them for years.

Being part of the narrative crafted by this esteemed organization has been a truly enriching experience. From the bottom of my heart, I am grateful to everyone at CSF for their recognition of the importance of education, their dedication to encouraging young minds, and their contribution to making the world a more beautiful place through their generosity. ■

CSF/Miljenko Grgich Endowment offers scholarships and an internship programs

- Scholarships are given to students majoring in Viticulture and Enology at the University of Zagreb. This is a Masters level program and the selected students receive scholarships for the two years they are in the program.

- Internship was established for the graduating students in Viticulture and Enology Program. Selected students come to the United States for three month internship at one of the Napa and Sonoma premier wineries.

This year 5 students are receiving Grgich scholarships and 4 graduates were selected for the internship program. We are pleased to share students' comments to CSF and Mr. Grgich.

You helped me in such a way that when I see the fees and think, how am I going to pay for all this, I remember that I have a scholarship in my account, and then everything becomes easier. I think you are already doing more than enough for the benefit of the students at this point. I hope that one day in my life I will be successful enough to donate to the fund and help provide scholarships to future students. Therefore, please do not stop this work until I get things right in my life.

~ Josipa Bošković

He helped me significantly in the financial sense to secure necessary literature and special wine events and tastings that will definitely serve me later in life as a valuable experience.

Honoring Al Saračević and Celebrating the Success of the CSF Golf Fundraiser

On September 8th, CSF hosted its 8th annual Golf Tournament. It was organized in memory of the late Al Saračević and was a testament to the enduring spirit he brought to the planning of past tournaments. Lunch marked the beginning of the day filled with shared passion for golf, featuring a shotgun start and concluding with a delightful dinner with drinks. Al's family, present at the tournament, received a heartfelt award as a token of gratitude, ensuring that his legacy remains an integral part of the CSF golf community.

The success of the tournament wouldn't have been possible without the support of our incredible sponsors. A sincere thank you goes to all of our wonderful sponsors.

Your support not only ensured a successful fundraiser but also contributed to the lasting impact of Al Saračević's dedication to CSF golf. We are immensely grateful for your generosity and commitment to our cause.
